CREAM OF NEWS.

Ward's Engagement.
The coming engagement of Fredrick Ward is being looked forward to by theatre-goers with much pleasurable anticipation. It promises to be the most brilliant and fashionable theatrical event of the season. Mr. Ward is a prime favorite here and he will be given a genuine ovation. The matinee performance will be "Gaston Capet" and at night will be given that great play "The Mountebank" with a superb cast and elegant appointments.

The seats will be on sale at 10 o'clock Monday morning at Galtbroth's at $1.00 and 50 cents. This time has been fixed so as to give out of town parties time to be on hand and get a fair show at the choice seats.

He Walked in His Sleep.
Mr. J. Kropp, the well known tobacco buyer of Clarksville, walked from the window of his room in the Arlington hotel, Clarksville, Tuesday night while asleep and was very seriously if not fatally hurt. He was found unconscious at 2 a. m. by the night clerk. His principal injuries are internal, though a shoulder and five ribs are broken. Mr. Kropp has been a very large buyer on this market and is a man liked by all who know him. He fell a distance of 20 feet and struck the brick pavement. He had regained consciousness at last accounts.

A Young Man's Fall.
This item appears in Wednesday's Louisville Times:
"A minister's son has added his name to the criminal list. It is Harvey Bingham, son of the Rev. Mr. Bingham. The young man has been employed as time-keeper by Harrison & Galt, and boarded with E. Truman, at 221 Seventh street. Last night he stole Mrs. Truman's steel plaid cloak and traded it in at St. Paul's pawn shop for a cheap cane. Detective Daly and Casin arrested him at noon today. Bingham admits his guilt."

Hurt by a Falling Door.
F. F. Henderson, one of the foremen at the planing mill, had one of his legs injured last Wednesday morning by a door falling on it from the second story of the building. At first the injury was thought to be very slight, but awhile afterwards it became so painful that Mr. Henderson had to be taken to his home in a carriage. It is quite probable that one of the doors was fractured.

We Feed the Governor.
The Eugene Mills Co., of this city, received an order Tuesday from Frankfort for four barrels of their patent Luxury flour, for use by the family of Gov. S. B. Buckner. This is the second order of this kind received during the current year. Gov. Buckner knows a good thing when he tastes it and consequently sends to Hopkinsville when he wants the best flour made in the State.

DEATHS.
John Trotter died near Macolonia on the 14th inst, leaving a family.

Mrs. Stewart, wife of James D. Stewart of the Antioch neighborhood, died Wednesday of brain fever, aged 31 years.

Carriers' Address.
On next Tuesday morning, the 24th inst., Willie Cowan and Ben Armstrong, the KENTUCKY carriers, will call upon their patrons with an elegantly written and uniquely arranged address. It was written by one of our best local poets and is full of good things as an egg is of meat. The boys will at the same time deliver the regular edition of the paper and will be thankful for such tokens of appreciation as may be given them by those upon whom they have so faithfully called during the year. Dimes, dollars, gold watches, town lots or other useful articles possessing a monetary value will be accepted and appreciated in proportion to their worth. Do not forget them, but contribute something in the way of Christmas money and at the same time secure a most readable and meritorious poem.

The lecture of Rev. Con Haney, Monday night, on "Ireland and Irishmen" was largely attended by a very highly cultivated and intelligent audience. The lecture was very instructive and entertaining throughout and was concluded with a number of characteristic anecdotes well related.

The temperature during the present month has been so mild that signs of spring are to be seen everywhere. The grass has taken on a greener hue, shrubbery is budding and signs of life, some trees are budding and strawberries are in some places blooming. This is all very pleasant, but the old saying "A green Christmas for a fat graveyard" is brought to mind.

Miss Jennie L. Brawer, one of the most capable and efficient colored teachers of the county, will be married Tuesday evening the 24th inst. to Jas. H. Poole, a son of the late Alex. Poole. The ceremony will be performed at the C. M. E. church on Liberty street. A large number of invitations have been sent out and the affair will be the social event of the season in the first circles of colored society.

The Louisville Critic refers this to a former resident of this city:

"Among the prominent advocates of this city, who express high appreciation of the value of The Critic as a medium through which to catch the public eye and heart, we are pleased to note Levy Brothers, the clothiers. Their advertisements always attract attention, especially those in The Critic, and we congratulate them on the fact that they have struck a happy vein. There is one of the two local concerns which find it necessary and profitable to employ an 'advertising man' and service in this line is rendered them by Mr. H. M. Caldwell, an old newspaper man, and a new entry in the advertising profession."

A BOY AND A PISTOL.

A Son of Councilman Campbell Shoots a Colored Boy.

Charley Campbell, an 18-year-old son of Mr. E. P. Campbell, shot and seriously wounded a colored boy named Bill Terrell at Tate's saloon on Ninth street Tuesday evening.

Conflicting reports are circulated about the affair. One is that Campbell and the negro boy, about his own age, had quarreled over a game of "craps" and that Terrell had cursed Campbell. The latter went off and borrowed a pistol and seeing Terrell in the saloon opened the blind and fired three shots at him. Another report is that Terrell was also armed and was looking for Campbell.

One of the three shots took effect in Terrell's side, ranging around the front part of his body just above the stomach and lodging under the skin on the opposite side. It was thought at first that the cavity had been penetrated and that death would ensue, but there is now a prospect of recovery.

Campbell after the shooting walked down to Bell's saloon on Main street. Chief Campbell and Officer McCord saw him and asked him if he had been in a difficulty at the dorect, a rumor of the affair having been caught on the street. He denied all about it, but said he noticed some fighting at Tate's saloon as he came by. While the officers were trying to find out the facts, Campbell slipped through the crowd and made his escape and is still at large. It is thought that he is hiding awaiting the result of Terrell's wound.

The young man's parents are very much distressed over the affair, which may turn out to be a case of homicide.

Everybody knows that the conditions for health are not favorable when the stomach, liver, and bowels are disordered. In such cases, headache, indigestion, and constipation are the result; for all which ailments the proper remedy is Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

South Ky. College Entertainment.

A concert will be given by the twentysix Societies in College chapel this evening for the purpose of raising funds to repair the College.

An admission fee of 25 cts. will be charged. The entertainment will consist of an oratorical contest between two young gentlemen from each society. Four young ladies, two from each society, will contest in recitation. Two gold medals will be awarded—one to the successful young gentleman contestant, and one to the successful young lady. Military drill by young gentlemen; drill by young ladies. The best of music under direction of Prof. A. G. Hecht. To conclude with a farce "Merchant (old clothes) of Venice." We have a liberal patronage for this entertainment. It will be well worth the money.
